

Now what?

We're so glad you joined us to discuss The 8th and the power of storytelling. We're also glad you're asking yourself, "Now what?"

The reality is there are many ways to fight for reproductive justice. Here are a few that you might not otherwise find.

DONATE

Whether it's a monthly gift or your time, give to an organization fighting for reproductive justice.

Click here to find some of the many organizations you may wish to support. A few suggestions from Renee Bracey Sherman:

- All* Above All
- All-Options
- We Testify

LEARN MORE

We recommend these resources—all grounded in storytelling—to better understand the past and present of abortion in the US:

Listen:
Apocalypse Now

Watch:
TRAPPED

Explore:
We Testify

Watch:
Ours to Tell

SHARE

Share The 8th!

Take a friend to see it in theaters: Sign up here to receive updates on The 8th's US release.

Have lots of friends? Host a screening: Reach out for more details about how.

Share on social media: @the8thfilm on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter

LISTEN

Part of working for a world in which abortion is accessible, safe, and destigmatized is knowing how to listen and lovingly respond when people do share their abortion stories.

Read:
How to Listen When a Loved One Says, 'I Had an Abortion'

Read:
Who Should You Listen to on Abortion? People Who've Had Them

EVOKE
MEDIA

BREAKING GLASS
A NEW NARRATIVE FOR WOMEN

TOGETHER

